With the unbeatable serenity and natural Australian bush setting, the Township Zoned property would make a fantastic opportunity to build your very own home STCA. The current owners have spent countless hours clearing and tidying the land while also completing the surveys, Bushfire assessment and Bushfire management plan (BAL & BMO) with Land Assessment, for the new owners to take advantage of so that the permit & building process is that much simpler. There is also an existing septic system located on the property.

Take advantage of this rare opportunity to establish yourself in this wonderful regional community. Guaranteed to be popular, contact us to book your inspection today!
