The private drive way leads you to the well cared for and stylish home that is set at the rear of the block, which is approx. 510sqm in size and on its own title, so there is no owners corporation to worry about.

The combination of brick and timber create a very appealing exterior and combines with the return verandahs at the front to create an inviting entrance. Once inside you will appreciate the features that this property has including: a practical and functional kitchen, the Victorian Ash floorboards, a design that flows through the living areas, 3 bedrooms - all with robes, 2 bathrooms including a spa bath in the main, gas ducted heating plus a reverse cycle split system for extra year round comfort.

Making life easier is the landscaping that has been completed to include decks, retaining walls, fruit tree plantings plus other established garden areas. The double remote-controlled garage is a must and the rear door from it leads up to a decking and into
