Spilling flawlessly outside is an entertainer's delight. Showcasing a huge undercover decking space with open fireplace, outdoor kitchen, outdoor blinds, and ceiling fan making it suitable for all seasons. The undercover exposed aggregate pathways wrap around the entire reclaimed red brick home creating low maintenance landscaping.

This picturesque property has been developed over the years with sustainability in mind with features including unlimited water supply through the plumbed in bore, raised veggie gardens, double glazed windows, fully insulated, and wood heating. Additional external features include a whopping 14m x 7m shed with 4m clearance, 4 fully fenced paddocks, wood shed, and more. The property even backs onto Mt Robertson State Forest which is rare for a property of this size.

This impeccable property provides the best of both worlds. Contact us to arrange a private inspection to see what all the fuss is about.
