

Views, Location and Opportunity To Build Your Dream Home

Most buyers seeking for a block of land to build on in picturesque Healesville will ask - Does it have views? Can I walk into the town centre? Are services available?

The answer to all these questions is Yes, Yes and Yes!

The majestic mountain views from the rear of the property are amazing and with the right design of a home could be enjoyed with everyday living. Positioned opposite the renown Queens Park the location for this could not be better as it is a short stroll to Main Street and all the exciting venues and amenities that the town has to offer. When the subdivision was done a number of years ago the services were put in place to accommodate future building.
