3 1 790m2

This isn't your average cookie-cutter house - this is a truly unique and one-of-a-kind property that's sure to capture your imagination. From the moment you step inside, you'll be transported to a world of charm and character that's unlike anything else on the market. This 3-bedroom home is bursting with personality, thanks to the use of timber and the influence of European ancestry.

Inside the home, you'll be amazed by the quirky and charming details at every turn and the craftsmanship of wood turning and the unmistakable feeling that you're somewhere else. Decorative fireplaces in the living area add to the ambiance, while an attic room and three different levels, some with their own balconies or verandahs, give the property a sense of whimsy and fun. The galley style kitchen is ideal for cooking up a storm, while ample storage areas tucked away in every available nook and cranny means you'll have plenty of space for all your belongings.

The natural gas ducted heating keeps the house lovely and cosy all year round, while the workshop area with built-in benches is
