surroundings and fresh air that Badger Creek has to offer.

The fully fenced flat block, approximately 652sqm in size, provides convenient access to the rear yard where there is plenty of room to build that all-important garage (STCA), as well as making it the ideal outdoor space for children and pets to play.

Located at a quiet end of the road and with all services available, this home represents a great opportunity for a family's first home, with most of the hard work already completed, although there is always room for personal touches.

With close proximity to Badger Creek Primary, Healesville Sanctuary, and transport links, this home strikes an excellent balance between convenience and tranquillity. Just a five-minute drive to Healesville and all amenities, this is an opportunity that should not be missed. Contact us today to arrange a viewing!
