51 Pheasant Creek Road, Pheasant Creek

Scenic Rural Acreage Ready to Build

A fine example of prime rural living in the heart of Pheasant Creek. The property is a magnificent 11.6 acre parcel of grazing land located in a highly sought-after area in the Kinglake Ranges. The property is fully fenced including dog fencing and features a meandering Acer Rubrum Autumn and Canadian Maple tree lined driveway that is absolutely stunning in Autumn. The driveway leads to the building site which has power directly to it, just waiting for the construction of your dream home to start.

With an abundance of water supplied by a fresh unlimited spring water bore with irrigation connected to generator for the orchard. There are two dams on the property, one of which is home to yabbies and lily pads, and the other is a 2.5-3 mega litre (approx.) dam with a jetty where you can relax and enjoy the scenic view. Additional backup water storage comprises a 22,500L domestic tank and stock tank for the sheep. There is also a great motorbike track for the 2 wheel enthusiasts and a paddock with animal shelter. There are outdoor bathtubs which
