inviting living space. An additional one-bedroom, one-bathroom self contained unit, which can also double as a master suite, provides extra accommodation, complete with a walk-in robe, a living area with R/C A/C, and a well-appointed kitchenette featuring a 600mm Esse combustion stove. The brick floor adds a touch of rustic charm, connecting the indoors with the outdoors seamlessly.

The exterior of this property is a perfect complement to its rural surroundings. The 3-car shed, accompanied by a carport, provides ample space for vehicles and storage. Crafted with attention to detail, the main shed, approximately 9x9m, is a versatile space. Partially set on a concrete base and powered for convenience, it features a remote control door for easy access. The wood heater inside ensures a comfortable working environment, while the mezzanine adds an extra dimension to the functionality of the space.

This property is not just a house; it's a haven that harmonizes with the scenic rural backdrop of Kinglake. Don't miss the opportunity to make this exceptional residence your home, where country charm meets modern comfort.
