Right in the Centre of Town

This near level allotment of approx. 2630 sqm is positioned in the township adjacent to the Coles complex with the Graceburn Creek as its rear boundary.

The zoning is Urban Flood Zone which means you are currently unable to build on the land.

Over the years the past owners have fully fenced the block, planted trees along the side boundary to encourage wildlife and made the most of the lovely mountain backdrop in such a convenient location.

If you are looking for an oasis for growing plants, veggies, agisting animals, storing equipment, camping or simply just to enjoy the space then this property may be just the one.
