system and wood heater, while instant gas hot water keeps things running smoothly.

Recent updates include selective internal painting and a full external repaint, giving the home a fresh and tidy finish.

Step outside and you'll find a 100,000L water tank, 15-panel 6.6kW solar system, undercover paved entertaining area, gutter guard, and two double carports.

There's also a 7x7m powered shed with concrete base and a separate wood shed.

And for those with green thumbs or hobby farm dreams, there's plenty of space to establish veggie gardens, a chicken coop, or anything else you can imagine.

Why You'll Love Pheasant Creek

Located just a short drive to Kinglake, you're close to local schools, shops, cafes, and community sports facilities - but far enough removed to enjoy the bushland surrounds and peaceful atmosphere that defines this sought-after pocket.

Whether you're upsizing, downsizing from acreage, or chasing a tree change, this property offers all the right foundations - and then some.
