

Build Your Dream Home with Breathtaking Yarra Valley Views

Hidden at the edge of the magnificent Kinglake National Park, this 42-acre sanctuary offers something truly special - a place where the air is clean, the views are endless, and the possibilities are as vast as the landscape itself.

Imagine waking up to the sound of birdsong, sipping coffee as the morning mist lifts from the valleys, and ending each day watching the sunset paint the distant ranges.

Set on approximately 42 acres with magnificent views stretching across the Yarra Valley, this beautiful Kinglake property offers the ultimate opportunity to create your dream country retreat.

Around 11 acres are cleared, providing excellent sites for a new home (STCA), while the remaining land delivers privacy, bushland beauty, and direct access to Kinglake National Park and Old Mountain Slide Road.

An outhouse toilet connected to septic, along with a 5-bay shed that includes a cool room and a basement underneath.

Three-phase power is already connected with a meter box at the front, and water is well catered for with a 100-metre-deep spring-fed bore providing potable water, supported by four storage tanks.

The property also includes an established orchard with a variety of fruit trees including citrus.

This exceptional holding combines stunning views, established infrastructure, and a truly peaceful setting.

Whether you're dreaming of a tree-change, a self-sufficient lifestyle, or simply a quiet escape, this is a rare opportunity to build your future surrounded by nature at its finest.
