If you love the great outdoors, this one's for you. This family home is perfectly positioned in a private road, backing onto National Park giving a sense of space beyond the boundaries. Externally the property provides a remote-controlled double lock-up garage with circular driveway and plenty of space for a large machinery shed. The land is elevated with scenic views towards Mt Robertson and excellent access to walking tracks and spring fed creeks. The allotment has approx. 8 acres fully cleared with a great balance of natural bush at the rear to explore. Additionally there is a quality fresh spring water bore with 14.4 ml water right.

The dream of owning your very own private acreage property is within reach with this rare selection. If you've considered options for hobby farming or a lifestyle change with agricultural pursuits within commuting distance to the CBD, this property will not disappoint.
